

SECTION 4.0

ENVIRONMENTAL CONSEQUENCES

SECTION 4.0

ENVIRONMENTAL CONSEQUENCES

4.1 INTRODUCTION

This section discusses the environmental consequences of implementing the Proposed Action, the Reduced-Intensity Alternative, the No-Action Alternative, and evaluates cumulative impacts. Subject areas that are analyzed include land resources, water resources, air quality, biological resources, cultural resources, socioeconomic conditions/environmental justice, transportation and circulation, land use, agriculture, public services, noise, hazardous materials, and visual resources.